

Q: What do I need to do in the CLTS to show I have exported animals?

A: To export cattle, they must be tagged with an approved CCIA RFID tag or USDA RFID tag and the exporter on record must submit an export event in the CLTS within 30 days of the animal leaving Canada.

Click here to access the instructions and templates for submitting an exported event in the CLTS.